

Leucothoe axilaris curly red ®

› Young trees

ref. 11433

[\[+\] Show on the website](#)

Description

Copper-colored Spring foliage, green with bright red young shoots at Summer, and then turns to red autumnal colors with the arrival of the first cold temperatures.

Strong shrub delivered in a 17 cm diameter by 15 cm high plastic pot.

Height of the plant on delivery : about 25*25 cm.

Description : ramified shrub that reach about 50 cm at his adult height.

Dimensions of the foliage : about 3 cm long. The foliage is wavy, shiny and evergreen.

Little discreet flowers in the en of Spring. This species can be in a pot, a flowerbed or in a japanese garden.

Resists to full sun but the best for the plant is a half-shade exposure in a fresh soil.

Variety under protected license, multiplication prohibited.