Description

Tree height: 400 mm

Width: 300 mm Pot: Glazed ceramic, blue color — 300 x 230 x 80 mm Style: Moyogi (informal upright) The Eleagnus, also known as silverberry or Bohemian olive, is an evergreen shrub with oval leaves marbled in green and yellow, silver on the underside. New shoots emerge copper-colored, and the small, fragrant flowers are waxy yellow. By the end of the season, they produce olive-shaped fruits, reddish-brown in color, measuring 8 to 12 mm. This bonsai is over 10 years old, grown from cutting, with well-formed foliage pads. It requires full sun exposure. No wire scars or major pruning wounds.
