Description

Exceptional Bonsai! For passionate collectors and enthusiasts.

This tree, in a unique Moyogi style, carries a deep sense of emotion thanks to the majesty of its spiraling trunk and its authentic, refined appearance. This rare specimen truly deserves to be discovered. Selected by Guy Maillot from Master Hino for the originality of its short, bluish needles. Tree height: 800 mm Width: 650 mm Pot: Old handcrafted unglazed lotus-shaped pot, brick color, dimensions 400 × 350 × 110 mm. Style: Moyogi Trunk diameter: 70 mm Nebari: 230 mm Age: Over 80 years, grown from natural seed, with small bluish needles. Features: Well-formed branch pads Beautifully matured bark Excellent trunk taper No major pruning scars or wire marks Strong, well-developed root base Currently wired with copper Admire the natural power of the trunk with its spiral movement, the originality of its branch pads, and the remarkable quality of its ancient cracked bark with its rare texture. Note: This bonsai requires full sun exposure. Sold without display stand. Photos taken in 2025. Don't miss the opportunity to add this masterpiece to your collection! Visiter son jardin:
